

IHPBA FOUNDATION

Now seeking applications for the 2019/2020 IHPBA Kenneth Warren Fellowship

Background

Dr Kenneth W. Warren, of Boston, USA, was recognised internationally as an authority on diseases of the liver, pancreas and biliary tract. Committed to advancement of the surgical science in his field, Dr Warren enjoyed an illustrious career spanning over 60 years. He established the IHPBA Kenneth Warren Foundation (now part of the IHPBA Foundation) in 2000 and passed away the following year at the age of 90.

Purpose

The goal of the fellowship is to promote collaborative scientific discovery in HPB diseases through support of clinical or laboratory research for a young investigator in a laboratory outside the applicant's own department and country.

Conditions of Award

The applicant should be a person seeking additional training in the laboratory with a mentor. Applicants will normally travel to the host institution to begin the fellowship and should confirm their intention to return to their home country after completion of their research. The award will be made on 1st July 2018 and the fellowship may commence at any time up to six months after this date. The awardee will notify the Chairperson of the IHPBA Research Committee of acceptance or refusal of the award by 14th July 2018. The applicant and the host sponsor must be members of the IHPBA at the time of the application. An applicant may apply for IHPBA membership at the time of the application, but the host sponsor must have been an active IHPBA member for one year immediately prior to the application.

Fellowship Stipend

A stipend of USD 25,000 will be granted to support the recipient's salary in the conduct of clinical or laboratory research over 12 months in a host department.

Fellowship Application Process

To be eligible for consideration, the following items should be submitted to the IHPBA in electronic format at the email address below:-

- Cover letter
- The applicant's curriculum vitae
- The mentor's curriculum vitae from the host institution
- A summary of the research project, including title, background, aims, methodology and timeframe of the research (not to exceed one A4 or letter size page)
- An acknowledgment from the host institution of support for the applicant's research
- Letter of reference from the mentor at the host institution
- Letter of reference from the applicant's home institution

Closing Date: 30th April 2019
